Profile of China International Import Conference 2013

June 25 & 26 – Beijing International Hotel, China

1. Background

In order to promote China's imports from other countries and the balance of China's imports and exports, CCPIT hosted the China International Import Conference 2012 in September 2012 in Beijing. It attracted over 600 domestic importers, distributors, manufacturers with need for imports and nearly 200 overseas exporters and manufacturers from over 30 countries and regions, and a large number of participants from government agencies, trade promotion organizations, financial institutions and trade service providers home and abroad. 11 seminars based upon different countries and regions and sectors were organized during the conference, with around 800 B2B meetings between domestic and foreign companies and 80 agreements reached between them.

2. Organization of the Conference

Hosted by: China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT)

Supported and assisted by: related international organizations, government agencies, trade promotion organizations, chambers of commerce, industrial associations in other countries

Organized by: Economic Information Department of CCPIT
Trade Development & Cooperation Center of CCPIT
Secretariat of China Chamber of International Commerce

3. Vision

Promoting China's imports and increasing awareness for the balance of imports and exports and the transition of China's economic growth mode, improving the composition of the goods China imports, the distribution of China's imports from different countries and regions, and promoting the balanced growth of China's imports and China's exports, domestic industrial development and outbound investment.

4. Programs

a. Opening Ceremony

Opening remarks will be made by a leader of CCPIT and a state leader of China.

b. Plenary Session

Leaders of different ministries and other experts will be invited to introduce and explain about the latest financial and tariff policies and measures, financial service and administrative measures undertaken to increase imports, and senior representatives of foreign government agencies, trade promotion organizations will be invited to introduce the potential of the country's export to China.

c. Sessions based on sectors

Different sessions on machinery, electronics, mining and metallurgical sector, clean energy, energy saving and environmental-friendliness sector, and consumer goods will be organized to promote the imports of advanced technology and key equipment related to the new strategic sectors, the technological reconstruction of traditional sectors and low carbon economy.

d. Sessions based on countries and regions

Different sessions will be organized especially for the imports from countries and regions with large trade deficit with China. US, Canada, UK, France, and Germany will be candidates.

e. Other Sessions

Chinese companies will be organized to have B2B meetings with foreign companies. Besides, senior representatives of CCPIT sub-councils and branches will be invited to discuss the promotion of China's imports in the future.

f. Display of Products and Service

Booths will be set up to promote their products, images, and services to overseas government agencies, trade promotion organizations, industrial organizations, and companies.

5. Audience

Participants are expected to reach 1500, including participants from China's government agencies at the central and provincial and city level, national and regional chambers of commerce, industrial associations and regional and industrial sub-councils of CCPIT; overseas government agencies, trade promotion organizations, chambers of commerce, industrial associations, manufacturers and exporters; domestic importers and distributors, third-party service providers; media; etc.

Contact Information

If you are interested in attending or would like more information, please contact the Canada-China Agriculture and Food Development Exchange Centre by email: info@ccagr.com or by phone: 1-416-642-3890.