

Canada - China
Agriculture and Food Development Exchange Centre
加拿大-中国农业与食品发展交流中心

<http://www.ccagr.com> <http://www.ccagr.net> info@ccagr.com Tel: 289-649-0045 Fax: 866-391-4791
Unit 317, 1100 South Service Road, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada L8E 6B2

Informational Newsletter

This newsletter will be featured bi-weekly, to provide readers with new and exciting information pertaining to our projects and promotional activities.

Wednesday June 1st 2011

CCAGR Presents October 2011 Mission to China!

The Canada China Agriculture and Food Development Exchange Center conducts many trips to China for Canadian agriculture/agri-food businesses who are interested in not only promoting their products in China, but who are looking for potential business investment opportunities as well. The following featured report contains crucial information pertaining to the trip, and features many reasons why a trip to China is the right move for your business!

Click here to read full report!

CCAGR Forms Partnership with EcoSpace Engineering Ltd

Interested in what CCAGR is up to in terms of business ventures? Want to learn about new and innovative Canadian technological advances? Read the full report to learn more about EcoSpace Engineering Ltd and their prospects for the future with CCAGR!

Click here to read full report!

Severe Drought Leaves Locals and Farmers Threatened

This article focuses on the devastating drought that has consumed China, affecting five provinces and over 4.23 million people and livestock. This article gives insight on the impact the drought has on the agriculture industry surrounding China's longest and most economically important, Yangtze River.

Click here to read full report!

"Spider Chicken" Allegations Have Consumers Concerned for Their Safety

This article is based on the ongoing concerns of poultry safety in China. Read more to learn about allegations of the infamous “spider chicken,” and the actual explanation for the increasing size of poultry in Chinese industrial chicken farms.

Click here to read full report!

If you do not wish to receive this newsletter biweekly, simply let us know, and we will remove you from our mailing list.

Thank you!