Surplus skim milk powder may be destined for China

This is a huge step for Canada and China! Canada exports skim milk powder to China, and China imports it from a safe and reliable source... Canada! CCAGR is printing this because there are many Chinese-Canadian investors on our list who are looking for investment opportunities in Canada. We hope to get in contact with any large agri-business opportunities in order to help get involved. Click below to read the full story that was featured in the Ontario Farmer on October 11th, 2011
